OSI Systems Awarded Approximately $29 Million in Advanced Cargo and Customs Screening Contracts from U.S. Customs and Border Protection

HAWTHORNE, Calif., Oct 27, 2009 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- OSI Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ:OSIS), a vertically-integrated provider of specialized electronic products for critical applications announced that its Security division, Rapiscan Systems, has received approximately $29 million in orders from the U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") to provide multiple units of its advanced cargo and vehicle inspection solutions for customs inspections and security screening and various air and sea ports of entry.

The products to be provided under the contract reflect the broad range of Rapiscan's cargo and checkpoint inspection product line including the Rapiscan Eagle Mobile and the Rapiscan GaRDS Portal. The fixed and mobile configurations utilizing both X-ray and gamma-ray technology provide the U.S. government with a comprehensive inspection solution for the detection of a wide variety of threats and contraband.

OSI Systems CEO, Deepak Chopra, stated, "We are excited to announce the contract awards from U.S. CBP again underscoring the advantages of our diverse product portfolio. The mix of fixed and mobile solutions allows for greater mobility and operational flexibility when it comes to the inspection of trucks and shipping containers entering the United States."
