We remain committed to our goal of continuing our top-line momentum while simultaneously seeking margin improvement and further cost reductions to improve profitability."

Mr. Chopra continued, "Strong bookings again led to a record backlog at quarter end. Bookings of note for the quarter included a $22 million contract for electronic sub-assemblies awarded to our Optoelectronics & Manufacturing Division and significant contract awards from the U.S. government to our Security Division for cargo & vehicle inspection systems and next generation checkpoint X-Ray systems. Following the continued review of its global operations and cost basis the Company has identified a further approximate $5 million of annualized cost savings that it expects to implement within the next twelve months. This is in addition to the previously announced $2 - $3 million of annualized cost savings that it expects to implement by the conclusion of the first half of fiscal 2008.
